

CURRICULUM VITAE

ALIKI GIANNAKOPOULOU

NATIONALITY Greek
DATE OF BIRTH 21/04/1981
ADDRESS Rue Sans Souci 137, Brussels, Belgium
E – MAIL agiannakopoulou@ecsite.net
TEL 0032-473414574

WORK EXPERIENCE

Ecsite April 2006-

CONFERENCE AND COMMUNICATIONS COORDINATOR

Ecsite is the European-wide network organisation that links all major science centres and museums, natural history museums, zoos and aquariums in Europe as active members.

Duties include

- Development and organization of the Annual Conference and its business bistro
- Development and organization of other Ecsite meetings, conferences and workshops.
- Communication with members through the e-newsletter and the website.
- Management of European projects (Hands on & Brains on, POLKA)
- Management of T-Nature group, a special interest group on nature related issues

RESEARCH COUNCILS UK

June 2005- March 2006

PORTFOLIO SUPPORT

Science in Society Unit is a unit which manages joint projects across the Research Councils UK. The projects include support for researchers, for schools and for the public interested in science.

Duties included:

- Evaluation of projects (evaluation of perspectives and of National Science Awards UK)
- Support in science communication projects run by the unit (Researchers in Residence, training courses for public engagement for researchers)
- Managing projects (The Nuffield Bursaries Science Scheme)

UNIVERSITY OF THE WEST OF ENGLAND

2004-2005

STUDENT MENTOR

Work in a local primary school as a mentor, assisting the teacher in projects, learning activities.

UNIVERSITY OF THE WEST OF ENGLAND
WARDEN

2004-2005

Work as a warden in an accommodation of the University of The West of England

NEWSPAPER EMPROS, MYTILINI, GREECE

2002-

2004

COLUMNIST

Writing weekly articles for the newspaper, a collection of these articles is published in a book -Ta xronografimata tou Vasiliø

TITAN CEMENT COMPANY

JUNE 2002-AUGUST 2002

JUNE 2001-AUGUST 2001

ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT ASSISTANT

Tasks included environmental measurements for the volunteer environmental management system that runs in the company (ISO 14000)

EDUCATION

MSc in Science Communication

2004-2005

Collaboration of the University of West of England, University of Bristol, At- Bristol 2004-2005

Modules Completed:

Science in Public, Science and Media, Broadcasting Science (produced a radio science programme in BBC studio in Bristol and a news-type feature in the Studio 59 in Bristol), Science Writing (reporting the Festival of Nature in Bristol-writing for the web page of the Communicate Conference).

Dissertation entitled: ð*Evaluation Report of perspectives*”.

Evaluation of a scheme funded by Research Councils UK, and organised by the British Association of Science for young researchers who want to explore the social and ethical issues surrounding their research

BSc in Environmental Science
University of the Aegean, GREECE
Degree: 7.54 out of 10

1999-2003

Thesis entitled: ð*Environmental Management Systems. A case study in the cement company TITAN AE* ”.

National Apolytirion, 7th Lyceum of Patras, Greece
Grade: 18.4 out of 20.

1996-1999

COMPUTER KNOWLEDGE

- Microsoft Word, Excel ,PowerPoint, Windows

LANGUAGES: Native Greek speaker, fluent in English, fluent in Spanish, very good knowledge of Italian, currently learning French

- First Certificate in English, University of Cambridge
- Proficiency in English, University of Michigan
- Basico in Spanish, Institute Cervantes
- Livello 1 in Italian, Universita de Siena
- 1 year of French course in CPAB, currently at 2nd year

TRAINING COURSES

National School of Government UK

MANAGEMENT ESSENTIALS

ADVANCED WRITING SKILLS

EVALUATION METHODS-NEEDS ANALYSIS

REPORT WRITING SKILLS

OTHER

Erasmus program for 4 months in the Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona: module of Urban Environment and Economics.